Letters from His heart to yours, such as: "Who are these? 'They are the children I love. They are the ones whom I redeemed. These are the ones I died for. These are the ones I am coming for.'" The Lord is personally pouring out His Heart throughout this book for those He Loves. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. (John 3:16, NASB) Oh, and how He loves you! I pray that HIS book, this book reaches every global corner and nation about His Everlasting Love; His Divine Plan and Purpose; and your assignments and appointments from a world of apathy and apostasy to a global revival of repentance and eternal redemption. He is The Light of the World. Share it. Show it: His Eyes, our eyes; His Ears, our ears; His Voice, our voice; and His Heart, our heart. Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." (Matthew 9: 35-38, NIV) Also written within is another Letter The Lord spoke, "These Are Cue Words. 'The days shorten to hours, even minutes, even to the last second-a flash. One last breath, one last mile, one last kiss and one last look, one last smile. It all ends, and death consumes them. Or life? Is this you? The Workers Are Few.'" He's calling you. Even as we see the day approaching, His Word and promise remain. Don't wait or hesitate. We must ask Him. Time is short.

“Humans are souls, buried deep below the coloured dusts of knowledge and experiences of the consciousness, within their physical bodies. The soul, when it deserts the body, dispenses with the colours of dusts to emerge as purest of the pure light. Yet, due to a cosmic error, if it carries some of the coloured dusts with it before manifesting in another physical form, then what could be the fate of that soul?” The novel, Chase of Choices, the story of a never-ending search—in today's global context—is recounted through Olivia, an American woman—a divorcee and, mother of two—who falls in love with an Indian, believing him to be the soul mate for whom her soul had longed for, since long. The story is as emotional, as inquisitive and romantic it is. Yet, at the same time, the underlying vibes are enlightening: revealing as many as 46 universal laws of human life, through 46 short chapters. Dr Hari Parameshwar, through this gripping and thrilling fiction, divulges how choices could sometimes really mess up one's life in our incessant strive to embrace balance—in work, personal life and family—whilst exposing the hollowness in the institution of marriage and depletion of values in family system, in utmost and brutal honesty.

and twisting, chilling details, this is Forever More. And love casts all fear aside in Forever No Less. It is about a mother's instinct and a child's cry. Erin is alone, and her lover is nowhere to be found. Doubt catches her off guard. And the search for truth causes her fears to become a cycle of ruin. Time remains unfazed and changes us in the most fascinating ways. The journey is more than what the eye can see. What is is not reality. And what was comes knocking. The door for hope is one to be yet opened when words remain unspoken. Erin finds a family curse and a path to the other side. She carries on and walks to the light. Lucian is searching for his lost child. Fate shows the destination. And hope is not compensated. Forever and always, time shows to be an advantage of surprising demands. What is to be of the land of Eden? Will all be free? Here beauty is but a figment of imagery. It is a kingdom of royal decrees, and fate becomes a mockery. An enemy changes the heart of one hero. But good has plans to overcome all evil and to forgive all against them. Love triumphs, and hate breeds. What you're expecting is not a clichéd ending, but a story of the ages. Words bounce for off these pages. And faith has unsatisfying wages. Death is a foe and cannot prevail. Sink your teeth into love everlasting. For what history shows is a passage way unto the unknown. Bernard Brady has given us a rare, delightful, and thought-provoking book—a volume that belongs on the desk or the bed-stand of anyone in search of the rich and varied dimensions of Christian love. Christians are taught that God is love and are commanded to love, their neighbors and their enemies. These truths are not controversial. What is controversial and, indeed, has been controversial throughout the history of Christianity is the meaning of this love. This book explores the tradition of Christian reflection on the meaning, and experience of love, loving, and being loved. Many books have been written about Christian love, but no book has gathered together this kind of primary source material and covered such a wide range of perspectives, allowing the reader to engage directly with the thought and experience of some of the greatest Christian minds on the topic of love. Bernard Brady covers with remarkable clarity the breadth and depth of discussions on Christian love from the Bible to contemporary experience to create this—a survey of how Christians through the ages have understood love. Beginning of course with the Bible, Brady examines the key writings and thinkers on the nature of Christian love: St. Augustine; mystics such as Bernard of Clairvaux, Hadewich, and Julian of Norwich; the great tradition and literature of courtly love, Thomas Aquinas, Martin Luther, Sören Kierkegaard, and others. In addition, Brady devotes chapters to several 20th century figures whose lives seemingly embodied Christian love: Mother Theresa, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Pope John Paul II. Finally, Christian Love addresses contemporary deliberations over the meaning of love with an analysis of the modern writings of Martin D'Arcy, Reinhold Niebuhr, Jules Toner, Gustavo Gutiérrez, Gene Outka, Margaret Farley, Edward Vacek, and Don Browning. In a synthesizing concluding chapter, Brady offers his own insightful and introspective understanding of the substance of Christian love, suggesting that it is an affective affirmation of another, that it is both responsive and unitive, and that it is steadfast and enduring. As a beautiful contemplative companion to one's own spiritual understanding, or as a thoughtful and meaningful gift, Christian Love is in every sense a treasure to behold, read, and share with those you love.

An omnibus edition of the last two books books in Jake Bible's Reign of Four series. Millennia ago, planet Helios held a grand technological civilization. But the Cataclysm tore the land apart, and the survivors were forced to flee to the Six Stations, the artificial planetoids that orbited Helios. It did not take long for their society to devolve into a virtual medieval world, with barely enough technology to survive the harshness of life in space. Out of this culture arose a line of monarchs called the Reign of Four. This edition features the previously published Book III and Book IV of Jake Bible's Reign of Four series.

David Tharp certainly deserves a book like this in his honor, and it deserves to be read and praised. It is a mustread for every American, and especially for veterans of war. --Palmetto Review

"In the beginning of the grieving process survival seems an impossible feat. The mourners challenge lies in Facing Tomorrow. After the death of her first husband, author Phyllis McElwain found herself unequipped to deal with grieving. Yet eventually, she managed to cope with it, learning there are many losses to grieve besides death itself. Conceived during the mourning process, Facing Tomorrow offers discussions that may be helpful to you in your journey of grief. It is not a how-to guide, but simply a description of the process of moving from the moment of loss toward healing and restructuring ones life."

Reb Noson's letters to his friends and family make an inspiring treasury, showing how Rebbe Nachman's closest disciple actually put the Rebbe's teachings of joy and fortitude into practice day after day, even in the most testing times. Volume Four also contains letters from Reb Noson's closest disciple, Reb Nachman of Tulchin, as well as several letters from Reb Noson's son, Reb Yitzchok.
