Now firmly established as one of the leading economics principles texts in the UK and Europe, this exciting new fourth edition of Economics by N. Gregory Mankiw (Harvard University) and Mark P. Taylor (Washington University), has been fully updated. New topics have been added in including theories on, for example, Marxist and Feminist theories on labour giving wider context to economic issues. A new chapter on Issues in Financial markets has been added covering the financial crisis and its causes and the final chapter has been updated to reflect the post-crisis world and how theories of the crisis have emerged.

The Arab World edition of N. Gregory Mankiw's Principles of Economics is essential reading for economics students in Arab League countries, or those with any interest in Islamic Finance. Following on from the successful second edition, the text contains updated case studies, news articles and features, which focus on the Arab World. It also includes Mankiw's classic ten principles approach to economics - introduced in Chapter one and then referenced throughout the book, designed to help build a framework for understanding. This text is designed to give students the confidence and ability to think like an economist. The third edition is also available as a MindTap, a fully interactive learning platform with additional assessment questions, Concept Clips and case studies.

Cinnamon Bay Plantation was the ideal Caribbean island getaway—or so it seemed. But for distinguished Harvard economist Henry Spearman it offered diversion of a decidedly different sort and one he'd hardly anticipated: murder. While the island police force is mired in an investigation that leads everywhere and nowhere, the diminutive, balding Spearman, who likes nothing better than to train his curiosity on human behavior, conducts an investigation of his own, one governed by rather different laws—those of economics. Theorizing and hypothesizing, Spearman sets himself on the killer's trail as it twists from the postcard-perfect beaches and manicured lawns of a resort to the bustling old port of Charlotte Amalie to densely forested hiking trails with perilous drops to a barren offshore cay.
