

Sheriff Callies Wild West The Cat Who Tamed The West Sheriff Callies Wild West Disney Junior Classic Tale

This is a collection of poetry, reflections and essays by academic and musician Julian Wolfreys. The book includes photographs by the author and paintings by Judy Rodrigues and takes us on a journey from the Isle of Wight to Northern and Central Europe and the Baltic coastline. Julian Wolfreys stays close to his love of phenomenology, Jacques Derrida and modern literature and covers themes like: place ~ home ~ loss ~ translation ~ correspondence ~ grief ~ memory ~ narrative ~ mood archive ~ chance ~ coincidence ~ love ~ absence ~ reading ~ allegory ~ imagination. 'Julian Wolfreys is an extremely distinguished poet... his poems strive again and again to understand, from the perspective of whatever moment he writes a poem now, what occurs in an event, a crisis, and how to bear witness, to find adequate words for it. ...read these wonderfully melodious and powerful poems for yourself and in your own way. Reading them has been a great, but troubling, delight for me.' J. Hillis Miller (Literary critic and Distinguished Research Professor of English & Comparative Literature at the University of California Irvine) 'Wolfreys has an uncanny ability to capture the most precious of moments and feelings, those that are of manifest importance but paradoxically most elusive.... this book is a gift to our senses.' Tom Ue (University College London) 'What a wonderful read. Just browsing through the pages, the lyrical and the essay and picture parts, is like moving slowly meditating in words (not through or by or on) in the poems, then shifting to 'thinking' in various discourses - plays and experiences confronting / interweaving / reciprocally illuminating all those places and~landscapes of mind.' Anna-Margaretha Horatschek (Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel) [Subject: Poetry]
