Please note: This book was originally published as Slade: The First Touch by Linzi Basset. Now with a new title under penname, Kimila Taylor. There's just something about the supernatural that draws me. The excitement of the unknown and the unreal, that allows me to let my imagination run wild. As with all my paranormal stories, this one has its own twist and is slightly different to most vampire and werewolf tales out there. The Alastor Chronicles is a series around the lives of The Alastor King, Slade Gruber and his two princes—Wade and Jax Wagner. In Slade: Blood Moon, book 1 in this tetralogy, we meet King Slade and his intended mate, Chiara Silas. She said ... My name is Chiara Silas and I am a vamp-were slayer. My only goal in life is to hunt these grotesque, undead creatures; to avenge the killing of my innocent siblings. So, there I was, on the run, minding my own business while I hid in his truck. I honestly thought he was a harmless trucker, until he had me naked and kissing in the back of his truck. Things went south from there. He turned out to be a bloody king and I turned out to be Dracula's relative (ye Gods!) Then he started talking about mating for eternity. I mean, don't get me wrong. He's delicious to look at and has that Master-of-the-Universe thing going for him. But I prefer my men humbler and with fewer teeth. Did I mention he's part vampire, amongst other things? Also, he looks at me like he wants to eat me whole. Much as I'd like to end up as his dinner, I have a job to do. The Red Moon marriage is right around the corner and I have some serious ass to kick. He said ... My name is Slade Gruber and I am the King of Alastor Protectors. I am here to protect humans and preserve the balance of humanity. So, there I was, minding my own business, when this red-haired hellion trespassed on my truck, held a gun to my balls and 'silently' begged me to make love to her. Things got interesting from there. She's gorgeous and funny. She also turned out to be my mate, preordained by a long-standing legend. Sigh. Don't get me wrong. I am hungry and she looks good enough to eat, but I have more pressing problems right now. Like the upcoming Red Moon marriage and the mutiny in various vampire covens. All hell is about to break loose and my spitfire mate is in the middle of it. Curious about what happens next? Why don't you take a ring side seat and join Slade & Chiara on this thrilling ride? Because, if you think you know how this ends ... think again!
