

What Does God Look Like Hakiki

Why is it such a struggle for us to surrender everything to God? What does surrendering to God even look like and how are we supposed to do it? Why is it so hard for us to live the life that Jesus died to give us? Is life really supposed to be one constant struggle after another? One of the hardest things to do in life is to let go, giving God everything and never looking back. Laying it all down, never picking it up is the only way we can walk through this dark unfair world shining and burning brightly for Jesus. Wanting control over our lives is the struggle that many Christians face and the turmoil of that fight is constantly lurking deep in our hearts. For many know what to do, but few actually do it: surrender. When a person holds onto frustration, bitterness, and the injustices of life their pain slowly evolves into chains that hold him down, disabling him to walk through life with peace, love, joy, and compassion. The only way to truly live is to die to our selfish nature every day and cast all of our burdens at the feet of Jesus.

Provides insights into the Jewish spiritual life including the quest for meaning, faith, identity, community, and holiness.

A supplement to the phenomenal best-seller! Discussion questions center around themes and Scripture in the book, further exploring Dobson's insights on human suffering and God's constant care.

Have you gone to religion for answers but ended up more confused? Have you tried to believe in God, but ended up disappointed because he didn't show up as they'd described? There are too many unanswered questions about God, and it makes religion look like a wild goose chase. Religion presents God as a magician, and when God fails to appear as presented and we demand answers, it expects us to accept that God works in mysterious ways, and besides, "How dare you question God?" "The Hidden Truth About God," say, "We are not questioning God, but what was presented to us." This book carefully analyzes and logically weighs theology and reality. It gives a step-by-step breakdown of God's plan for Creation and uses real-life experiences to provide rational answers to unanswered questions about God. And why life is full of pains and suffering when God could snap his fingers and everything becomes perfect, yet he doesn't. Thomas, a computer scientist and teacher of religion together with Grace, a professor of religion and philosophy, reveals life as a program and God as a programmer. They brilliantly decipher codes to find the bridge between the supernatural and the natural, deity and humanity, God and reality, presenting answers to some very interesting questions: What's the truth about heaven? How did sin get into heaven? Why doesn't God take away evil? What happens in the supernatural? Is religion the way to God? What about reincarnation? Why can't a perfect God have a perfect world? Is there God, or does the universe run itself? What's the big deal about Christianity? Why are there so many contradictions in the Bible? Do you value reason? Are you a skeptic, or a critical thinker? Are you a believer in the universe? Are you atheist, theist, or just searching for answers to the countless questions of the universe? This book will provide you with answers using reason and real-life experiences as it draws resources from Religious books, theology, philosophy, science, and reality. The Law of relativity states that everything is neutral when seen in isolation and only reflects in our reality when we ascribe meaning to it. Therefore, we can give meaning to God and life, or not, but Thomas and Grace's inclusion to this law is that the truth remains true irrespective of relativity. What then is the truth

We have always needed God's blessing, though we forget this when the course of life seems smooth and steady. But when trouble visits, we turn to God and invoke his favor. Yet do we really know what we are asking for? And is it possible to live in such a way that blessing becomes part of the very fabric of life? (from the Introduction) When someone says, "God bless you," what does it mean? What does the blessing of God on our lives look like? Too often Christians have understood God's blessing in terms of the priorities of our popular culture. But in the Christian life, blessedness is more than good fortune, emotional happiness or material prosperity. True blessing runs counter to how the world operates and only comes through participating in the kingdom Jesus announced. One set of lenses for viewing this blessed life is found in the Beatitudes of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. The Beatitudes are not a set of moral rules or a how-to manual. Nor are they "Eight Simple Steps to God's Blessing" or a self-improvement plan designed to guarantee God's favor. Instead, Cameron Lee sees the Beatitudes as a window through which we may view the new landscape that Jesus called the kingdom of heaven. He illustrates the nature of this kingdom by contrasting each Beatitude with the ways that our self-centered culture tugs at us. His exposition helps us reevaluate our cultural assumptions and challenge the world's values. As we live in light of the Beatitudes, those around us will see the appealing uniqueness of God's kingdom. And we will discover life as God meant it to be--marked by wholeness, transformation and freedom.

In this engaging introductory dialogue, Todd Moody maps the spectrum of philosophical arguments and counterarguments for the existence of God. Structuring colloquial conversations along classical lines, he presents a lively and accessible discussion of issues that are central to both theist and atheist thinking, including the burden of proof, the first cause, a necessary being, the natural order, suffering, miracles, experience as knowledge, and rationality without proof. The second edition is a significant and comprehensive revision. Moody broadens and deepens the conversation by addressing additional arguments, such as the problem of animal suffering, the moral argument, intelligent design, and human exceptionalism. The discussion of the cosmological argument is updated to reflect recent work on the Kalam Cosmological Argument. A short preface explains the scope of the work and the purpose of the dialogue form.

Suggested further readings of contemporary and classical sources are also included.

Who am I? Where do I belong? What am I living for? Written by Dave Smith, Senior Pastor at KingsGate Community Church and author of 40 Days with Jesus, this new resource for individuals, small groups and churches looks at Ephesians 1–3. In Ephesians, Paul paints a wonderfully full portrait of our new identity and purpose in Christ, a purpose that starts now and will be fulfilled in eternity. Each of the 50 days of Transformed Life explores a bite-size chunk of Scripture, breaking it down into accessible, memorable parts that can be applied to everyday life. Be renewed. Be challenged. Be transformed. Free video teaching, small group studies and free sermon outlines with optional resources for children and youth are available alongside this book.

As Catholics, the Mass should be a mountaintop experience for us. Often, though, we go through the motions at Mass without an appreciation for what has really happened. Popular speaker and author Mark Hart helps Catholics move beyond the repetition and ritual to see the Mass for what it really is: a heavenly banquet, a wedding feast, in which heaven and earth meet. In his engaging style, Hart guides readers toward a deeper understanding of the Mass—its roots in the Jewish Sabbath, its sacrificial character, and its signs and symbols. As we are told to “go in peace," he inspires us to see the Mass as a place to be nourished so that we can further Christ's mission in the world. In the last part of the book, Hart provides pithy answers to frequently asked questions, such as "Why can't I leave right after Communion?" or "Why did the words change?" Finally, Hart offers ten things we can do to get more out of Mass.

How is the one God also three persons? How is Jesus fully God and fully human? Who in the world should we pray to? And why does any of it matter? Steve Dancause offers a succinct and profound investigation into how what we think about God as Trinity matters in our faith, our work, and our love. It matters because the walls of our churches are cracking around us. We can keep patching things up, but it is better to go to the foundation and do the hard digging. With the right foundation, the structure holds, and it stands the test of eternity. And it is only in Jesus, and the Trinity he reveals to us, that we build our lives on solid rock. Let's dig down together. The Jesus Way: Small Books of Radical Faith delve into big questions about God's work in the world. These concise, practical books are deeply rooted in Anabaptist theology. Look What God Can Do is a book that everyone needs to read. As believers, we know that God is almighty and powerful; but we sometimes lose sight of that when going through trials and tribulations. Look What God Can Do is a strong reminder that God will bring us through every situation and circumstances, not only once, but over and over again. I've often heard the saying, "The Lord will make a way," as a reminder to have faith in what God can do; but I was excited to hear what God has already done. Daniel Wright III (Minister at Restoration Family Center and Entrepreneur) It is an honor to be associated with the initial offering of a new writer. A new writer steps onto the scene, and the world takes notice of their style and content. Erica has a straightforward style, born of her experiences with God, herself, and others. Very rarely is experience vague. Life experiences hit you right between the eyes, and you have no choice but to respond. Normally, it hurts. Erica teaches us that we can experience life's experience with God the Father who is the author of life itself, Jesus Christ who is the example of one who trusted in God's providence, and the Holy Spirit who empowers us with His presence. Therein lies her content. Everyone with breath faces the seemingly arbitrary circumstances of life. Luck, happenstance, and coincidence have no substance. To face life this way is to be tossed back and forth with no grounding. Erica teaches us that life has meaning and purpose. By her stripes, we learn that God actually is a part of our daily lives. Those who follow Jesus understand that all things work together for our good and God's will. Thank you, Erica, for teaching us that faith is the content of life that allows us to face life's trials. You teach us that suffering, doubt, and rejection have meaning and purpose. The meaning and purpose are God's way of molding and shaping His people. Your story actually is the story we all live. Avery C. Brown, D.D. A.M.E (Presiding Elder, Zion Church Denomination) This book tells the story of faith and hope. My goal is that every reader will read this book and no matter where they are in life, to have faith and trust in God and to understand that God loves each of us the same. There is no one that cannot experience his love and his presence. We all have a testimony; this one is mine. When I was given the prophesy by my first Spiritual Father Pastor James Armstrong of New Harvest Christian Center that I would someday write this book, I felt it would happen in two years; but no. God allowed me to experience and live what I was to write. It took twelve years of going through various life trials where God just stretched my faith and me right down to where faith is all I had. I began using nothing but biblical stories. But God showed me through Pastor Dorian Daniels that this is your story, so tell it. This is my testimony of What God Can Do; and I know that whatever God has done for me, he can do for you. I am so excited for our future!

The book in your hands is a Holy Spirit inspired enterprise. The book as a project wouldn't have been possible if it were not with the full support of the Holy Spirit. As the title of the book HEAVEN IS NOT THE FINAL HOME OF MAN implies, the caption might look like a heresy to many believers in the Lord. The old belief, that Heaven is our final home, the final destination, wherein we shall stay till eternity after death was and is still in force among the Christians. Surprisingly, this is, even the standpoint of many highly rated Ministers of God, who ought to have known better. Heaven is the capital city of God. It's His permanent home. No one can go there whether it is in body, soul or spirit. Therefore, any Christian with an unscriptural belief, that when we die, we shall go to Heaven to spend our eternity there is just day dreaming . It's a fallacy. It's high time the Christians jettisoned such an un-biblical mentality from their minds. For your information, the book is revealing, educative, inspiring, anointed, power-packed and incisive. It also contains life-transforming and powerful messages such as: 1. THE PHYSICAL encounter of the author with the two angels of God on IKOYI PRAYER MOUNTAIN in Nigeria which culminated in the writing of this book as a project. 2. THE ALTERED AGENDA of God necessitated the creation of Paradise, Hell, Lake of Fire, New Heavens, New Earth, New Jerusalem, etc. They are just the afterthought institutions of God. Why? They were never created in the beginning. 3. THE CHURCH of God is the Government of God in the world. The solution to the world's problems is in the House of God...the Church. God is never blamable for the world's problems. Man has the final say on the earthly affairs, and not even God. God can say Yes. Man can say No, or vice versa because he was created as a free moral agent. 4. ALL the modern pastors and general overseers will never rule and reign with Jesus Christ in His Kingdom of a thousand years. Why? They are working indirectly for and with the Devil. Besides, they qualify not for the laid-down divine requirements. In fact, they are candidates of the Second Resurrection. 5. THE ALMIGHTY GOD is not God of the Christians alone. He's God of the Living: both the Christians and non Christians as well. They are all His Children. 6. THE JUDGMENT DAY of Christ shall surely take place on this very earth. It shall not take place in Heaven or in the sky as being alleged in the Christendom. Man commits his atrocities here. Man shall be judged here. 7. THE SPOTTED heresy in the doctrine of JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES as a Christian Organization was analyzed and discussed in this book. 8. THE NEW JERUSALEM shall be the capital city of the New World. Its coverage surface area is 13,500,000 square miles. 9. THE THIEF on the right hand side of the crucified Jesus Christ, was the world's First Christian. 10. CHRISTENDOM is not the same as CHRISTIANITY. The two institutions cannot be used interchangeably, either. Christendom is a synagogue of Satan and his wicked angels. In Christendom, the Church of God is seen and treated as a private business. 11. A PASTOR is a "burnt offering" unto the Lord. He's to own absolutely nothing in his name. Therefore, the current rich pastors and general overseers in the world are THIEVES in the House of God. 12. THE THREE Biblical Kingdoms uncovered at long last: The Kingdom of Heaven, The Kingdom of Christ and The Kingdom of God. The Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven are presently with us, precisely, in the House of God...the Church. 13. THERE ARE two powerful institutions in the world that control the affairs of a man on the planet, earth viz: The Government of God ably represented by the Church and the government of man. Each is controlled and headed by a Prince: The Prince of Peace and the "prince" of this world. 14. THERE is no full fire in Hell. Satan shall never spend a single day in Hell with the lost souls. He's already judged. 15. AND many more.

The book of James has been called at times "The Proverbs of the New Testament" because of its practical nature in how to "do life" with God. Do you ever struggle with things like trials and temptations, faith, favoritism, your tongue, pride, quarrels, slander, prayer and how to be patient in suffering? Then you've come to the right place! James confronts all these and more head on and in this power-packed letter to believers. Do you get tired and discouraged feeling that you will never live up to God's standards? Do you want to know God in a deeper more intimate way? Then this study is for you. Your perspective on God will be challenged along with what a relationship with God truly looks like focusing on "being" rather than "doing." Acts 17:28 says, "In Him we live and move and have our being." What does that really look like in our everyday lives? Are you ready to "go deeper" with God? Well, then, let's get started!

When a little boy asks his mother about what God looks like and many other questions as well she answers him with lots of details. This story began when author Linda Wilson's three daughters were young. This story was written and illustrated in response to their questions and the questions of many other children through the years about God. Children yearn for the literal, touchable truth about all things, including the unseen God of the universe. Understanding that truth is quite a task for children in their formative years. Their eager and open minds deserve good answers to their good questions. What Does God Look Like? seeks to help each child know who God is and how much He loves and cares about each of them; relieve any fears or misconceptions about death and reveal a biblical, pleasant picture of heaven for them; and reinforce the teaching that God is not only our Lord and Savior but also our comforter, teacher, and everlasting Father. What Does God Look Like? encourages each child to see God's reflection in his or her face and to make an indelible impression on them that they are made in God's image.

Has God inspires children to ponder questions about their Heavenly Father. The lighthearted verse and the delightful pictures illustrate a joyous God who loves us and wants us to share His love with others. It is the perfect book to help parents begin a conversation with their children about our relationship with God.

This book is a non-religious, non-humanized look into God. Seldom do people look at the ramifications of God's infinite, absolute, omniscient, and eternal nature. We might feel small and unimportant when we consider ourselves in relation the infinity of God, or we might feel safe and relevant when we see how intimately and innately we are connected to infinite God. This book answers all variety of questions about God, including simple and basic questions: What does God look like; why is there suffering; does God know everything; could God die; is God male or female, and on. As the jacket of the book indicates, this is not a warm and fuzzy discussion about God, but rather a more technical presentation about the nature of a truly infinite, eternal God. This is not a religious book, nor was it written with a religious purpose. The book's description of God may differ from descriptions various religions have of God, but its purpose is not religious, nor is it to impact religions. The purpose of the book is to give an accurate description and analysis of the nature of God, for whatever joy, pleasure, or satisfaction that that description and analysis might give to the reader. That result, that joy, if gained will fulfill the book's mission.

Come visit a place at the center of town. A special place called Twenty-Four Homes. It's twenty-four places where God's people live. It's twenty-four places where God makes His home. Come hear a story about God becoming the home of a special heart there. What does Jesus look like? There are different representations of Jesus's physical appearance in paintings and illustrations, but we simply don't know what Jesus's physical appearance looked like. Violet loves pictures. Her bedroom walls are full of all kinds of pictures, including several different pictures of Jesus's physical appearance. Violet is confused and frustrated by this and is determined to somehow find a picture of what Jesus really looks like. Motivated by her yard sale house plant that finally blooms, Violet's own heart blooms and discovers what Jesus surprisingly really looks like.

Jesus came from the closed village of Galilee. He was originally a lower-class Jewish missionary. He was convicted of illegal activities and was crucified for treason. But shortly after his death, his followers began to declare that he was the incarnation of God, and later even directly declared that Jesus is God, the Lord of heaven and the world. So the question is: how did a farmer who was crucified become the creator of all things? The author of this book has been a regular Christian since he was a child. He went to church every Sunday and served as a sacrifice. But as time passed, his thinking changed.

God can answer your questions! For the past twenty years, Psychic Channeller Lee Grace, has undertaken an extraordinary journey into God and the Paranormal. Here, she tells her tale of this amazing relationship and experience. She believes that God is the Source of All Channelling Experiences and that He is the one who sends spirit guides into our lives. He has told her, firsthand, that He is the Source of All Paranormal Events. For Lee, her journey started when she and her family began to see ghosts in their new home. Curious, she did some research, reading everything she could get her hands on about Psychic phenomena. She then began reaching out to these earthbound spirits with a Pendulum and started seeing visions in her Meditations. When she found a book about Channelling, she knew that it was an invitation for a far more profound connection to the unknown. She prayed for guidance and for permission to Channel. God answered Lee's prayers and so much more. She built a relationship with Poulou, her personal spirit guide. One significant afternoon, she asked Poulou a seemingly simple question: "What does God look like?" What happened next changed her life forever. Lee was introduced to God. She was given the gift of Direct Verbal Channelling with God, and now she shares this good news with everyone. Lee includes, and would like you to try for your own experience, a comprehensive guide for Direct Verbal Channelling.

You're prepared to teach your Sunday School class or lead Bible Study when out of the blue someone asks the dreaded question everyone seems to ask at some point: What on Earth am I here for? Wow, so much for lesson preparation. Considering the extensive teaching and preaching on calling and purpose these days, you'd think answering such a question would be a slam dunk. Think again. Most believers don't have a clue as to how to answer that question or its companion inquiry: What on Earth am I supposed to be doing? This uplifting book taps the ultimate resource of the Word of God to provide compelling answers to these questions...and more. With a unique blend of lively narrative, entertaining stories and theological discussions, the author challenges and inspires readers to fulfill their true purpose, to MAKE GOD LOOK GOOD.

Each of the stories in this book touch on faith. In the stories it will show people finding faith, living faith, or using faith. Faith carries Christians through the trials and tribulations that Jesus assured us would come. Christianity is found and practiced with faith. Without faith that Jesus is the son of God, died on the cross, and on the third day, was resurrected, the Bible is mere religious dogma to a person. Faith, when active in a person's life, is exciting, powerful, and comforting. With faith, you are capable of any and all good things. Stretch your faith when you read these stories. Begin to relax and let God help you through life's many difficulties. With an active faith, you will begin to see God working miracles everyday in your life, just for you. My hope is for the stories in this book to excite you and help you to see what faith looks like by reading about people finding, using, and leaning on faith and all that it can bring to you. Jesus said that with faith as small as a mustard seed, that's small, you can ask a mountain to move and it will. Jesus is not a liar or an exaggerator. He always means what he says. Jesus, through his faith, went willingly to that cross. That is proof enough of his faith and reliability.

Children of all ages have wondered or asked the question, "What do God look like?" This book is inspirational and entertaining. Children will enjoy the illustrations and its poetic composition verse by verse. If God Was A Child Like Me will show your child diversity in families and no matter how different they may look, they all love to do the same things. It will captivate your child's attention while bringing a greater connection to parent and child as they read together. This book, If God Was A Child Like Me, is delightfully written for children. And, will remind the reader that no matter how different we look, God loves us all the same and we should also love one another.

What does God's mission look like? Who is supposed to carry it out--and how? Juan F. Martínez leads us on an inquiry into God's mission in the world: what it is, what it is not, and who is invited to be part of it. If Jesus is truly God's mission incarnate, we need to look at what Jesus did and how he did it. Martínez helps readers understand what mission means, why Christians in the past have made missteps, and how we can learn from Christian communities that are spreading the good news of Jesus today. Doing mission in the way of Jesus may look different from what many assume, but it is a call that the church cannot afford to miss. We all know that everything we have is a gift from God. But some-times it's hard to know just how to give back to God. How much is enough? What does the Bible really say? What should giving look like in our everyday lives? Filled with good news for followers of Jesus, Giving to God shows Christians the way to a better life and a better relationship both with their money and with God. Popular author and Bible scholar Mark Allan Powell presents stewardship as an act of worship, an expression of faith, and a discipline for spiritual growth. Faithful use of our time, talents, and treasures starts with a deep, satisfying relationship with the God to whom we belong. We can then learn, says Powell, to give gladly and generously out of our heartfelt connection with God. In the second half of Giving to God Powell applies these principles to today's complicated world. After providing answers to practical questions about living and giving, Powell lays out a specific plan that Christians will be able to embrace as both a duty and a delight.

A Biblical look at the appearance of God the Father.

Explores questions young children may have about God and God's work in the world.

This book was written one night after the author was given the title of the book by a true inspiration from God. He revealed to the author a secret held deep in her heart that God truly looks like the goodness of the creation He created. We think you will be inspired, young and old, with the words and photographs in this book.

The Christian Bible is the biggest selling book of all time, and one of the most influential. However, it has a lot of scientifically questionable and morally reprehensible content. It is urgent that an epochal edit of the Bible be initiated to reflect the long flow of scientific discoveries since it was first assembled as a book. The decline of Biblical Christianity is evident in America, Canada, Europe and many places around the world. This book lays out in obvious clarity what a new Bible should look like, not the least of which should be truth. This book underpins the author's discovery of the Triangles of Mt Sinai which by itself helps to greatly substantiate the location of the real mountain of God. Not only is the mountain identified, but the Holy Ground is found atop with all the details. The information within these pages reflect the progressive revelations obviously permitted by God, though religion has locked the scriptures into obsolete and errant science at the chagrin of everyday Christians. Other critical issues are iniquity and injustice in which some apologists and the priestly class can only offer "it must have been God's will". This book also confronts science on what it does not know, what it can possibly know, and what it will never be able to declare with certainty either way; does God exist or not. Neither cosmology nor quantum physics/mechanics can claim to know either way, as examined in the last chapter. The journey out of the circus is not easy, as most of what is in these pages upends much of the staunchly held dogma. Satan's Circus charts a new path that follows truth, justice, morality, the one true God and Jesus Christ.

I was created in the beginning through the hand and mind of GOD. When the time for GOD's purpose and plan for my life arrived GOD placed me in the life of my dear parents, who are deceased, to nurture me in preparation for life's journey in CHRIST. I am the eldest child of their union and GOD blessed me to share my life with two brothers and two sisters. Further, GOD has blessed me with two sons, a daughter, a daughter-in-law, three granddaughters, and a grandson, all of whom I cherish. I am a native of New Orleans, Louisiana. I now live in Irving, Texas. At the age of twelve I made a commitment to GOD that I would learn all that I could so that when HE needed me I would be prepared to be used by HIM. GOD gave me a quest for knowledge and I have attended colleges, universities, workshops, seminars and classes on subjects such as systems analysis, bookkeeping, social work, treatment of children who have been sexually abused, learning disabilities, advocacy for the disabled, real estate, sales, marketing, advertisement, counseling, law, travel and tourism, Microsoft office applications and much more. I have a Bachelor Degree in Sociology and a Juris Doctor Degree in Law. I am a 1985 candidate in Who's Who in America and 1986 in Who's Who Among Professional and Business Women International. Presently, I am developing a business incubation program, organizing a foreign mission network and writing books. I am the Founder and President of Serving Others, Inc., a non-profit corporation. I plan to pursue a doctorate degree in Jewish Studies and I am currently a member of a Messianic Jewish congregation. I have spent more than twenty years speaking in prisons, homeless shelters, substance abuse programs, detention centers and on the streets. I have witnessed to mothers outside of abortion clinics concerning their decisions to abort their babies. I have been a volunteer in an AIDS hospice. I have been called by GOD to be an evangelist, teacher, builder and intercessor in HIS Kingdom. I have produced spiritual TV and radio broadcasting programs. GOD has given me an international ministry and I will be traveling soon to The Gambia, Liberia, India, Ghana, Kenya, Uganda, Saudi Arabia, United Kingdom, and Jordan. I am who I am because of GOD's grace and mercy. I live to die to self so that the Glory of GOD can be displayed in my life. I will never forget Calvary's Cross because all of my sins, pain and sorrow were given to JESUS. All of my heartache of this life is not to be compared with my salvation. Whatever I achieve in this life I will always say, ATo GOD is the Glory!@

What does God's plan for raising children look like? It looks and smells like success with God's favor in bloom! When we partner with God, using His plan, He will open the door to unimaginable blessings. Our world has been broken and dysfunctional since the sins of Adam and Eve. As the population of the world increases, so does evil (sin). Raising Children The Old Fashioned Way, for a better tomorrow, will bring parents hope, encouragement, and an avenue to success, when they put God's parenting plan into action. Raising Children The Old Fashioned Way, is a scripturally based guideline that presents God's opinion, wisdom and common sense, for raising children in accordance to His plan. Roman 15:4 "Everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scripture we might have hope." Children deserve the best, and that is to be raised by God's wisdom and principles. It is obvious God has been ignored far too long. It is quite apparent that the world today, lacks God knowledge, God wisdom and God discernment. Parents have the ability to change this atrocity, for the sake of all children. Ecclesiastes 1:9 "What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again, there is nothing new under the sun."
