Il viaggio di un uomo verso il diritto di morire. Da Roma a Zurigo, ottocentosessanta chilometri in auto per diventare un padre che conosce i propri figli, per ricucirli assieme e farli essere una vera famiglia, prima che sia troppo tardi. Una fine prolungata ad arte dal protagonista, malato di Sla, fra tour di locali bizzarri e alberghi quotati. On the road, fra passato e presente. Con uno stile leggero e a tratti ironico, l'autore racconta la storia di un uomo che forse non ha ancora rinunciato del tutto alla vita.

The Swiss International Arbitration Law Reports provides for the first time a full English translation of the decisions made by the Swiss Federal Supreme Court on a biannual basis, irrespective of whether the original decision was published in the German, French or Italian language, or whether the decision has been officially published or is simply available on the Court's website. The English translation is presented in parallel to the original text of each decision, and it is preceded by a head note and a summary of the decision for the reader in a hurry. All decisions directly relating to international arbitration will be translated, including those that deal with setting aside proceedings, the enforcement of arbitration agreements or the recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards in Switzerland under the New York Convention, 1958. Switzerland is historically one of the preferred venues for international commercial arbitration. Arbitrations taking place in Switzerland relate not only to contracts between European corporations, but also to contracts made in East-West trade or contracts between parties in the Northern and the Southern hemisphere. The most important decisions on international arbitration are made by Switzerland's highest court, the Federal Supreme Court. Anyone who needs to consider the position of the Swiss law on international arbitration is bound to consult these decisions. In addition, due to the leading role of Switzerland in international arbitration, the Court's decisions are frequently relied upon by arbitral tribunals in international arbitrations outside Switzerland.
